

Active ingredient: dexpantenol

Composition:

Active ingredients: 1g contains dexpantenol 50 mg, preserved with cetrimide 0.1 mg.

Other ingredients: polyacrylic acid; disodium edetate.

Indications:

Corneal lesions; supportive and post-treatment of all types of keratitis, as e.g. keratitis dendritica; scalds, burns; dystrophic corneal diseases; prevention and treatment of corneal damage in wearers of contact lenses

Contraindications:

Hypersensitivity to any of the ingredients.

Side effects:

Occasionally symptoms of intolerance may occur.

Caution: even when administered as indicated, this product may cause a transient blurring in vision and patients should exercise caution when driving vehicles or operating machines.

Interactions with other products

If other eye drops or eye ointment are being used concomitantly, an interval of 5 minutes should be observed between administration of the different medicaments and corneregel should always be applied last.

Dosage And Administration

Unless otherwise prescribed and according to severity and manifestation of complaints, instil one drop into conjunctival sac, 3-5 times or more frequently during day and before retiring for night .

Do not use corneregel whilst wearing contact lenses.

Special Remarks

Do not use this medicament beyond the expiry date (refer to outer carton and tube).

As in the case of all ophthalmic products, discard any remaining contents 4 weeks after first opening tube.

Do not store at temperatures exceeding 25°C.

Further information can be obtained from the doctor or the pharmacist.

Presentation

Tube of 5 g

keep all medicines in a safe place out of the reach of children!

